Purpose Statement

Education Queensland is committed to provisions that ensure all young Queenslanders have access to a quality education, as is their right.

The Tannum Sands State High School Student Code of Conduct sets out the responsibilities and processes we use in our school to enact a proactive, productive, and holistic approach to supporting high standards of behaviour. Its purpose is to facilitate high standards of behaviour from all in the school community, ensuring learning and teaching in our school is a priority, and where all students are able to participate positively, experience success and staff enjoy a safe workplace.

Tannum Sands SHS is committed to being a restorative school, learning-focused community where everyone has the right to feel like they belong and are supported. Our focus is on building and maintaining respectful relationships, with everyone being responsible and accountable, and developing personal excellence and integrity by repairing/managing any harm openly and fairly. Social and academic learning opportunities are provided for students to engage in quality learning experiences and acquire values supportive of their lifelong learning and wellbeing; and where behaviour expectations are defined, taught, modelled and reinforced.

Principal's Forward

At Tannum Sands SHS, we are committed to providing a responsive support process to cater for the needs of all our students; ensuring a safe, supportive, inclusive, and disciplined learning environment that provides access to the full range of the educational opportunities on offer through our school.

We are committed to working collaboratively WITH all members of our school community to create positive futures for our students and community, and this Code of Conduct has been developed in consultation with staff, students and families.

Our shared values of RESPECT, RESPONSIBILITY and RESPECT are the foundation from which every member of our school community works towards the school motto, CREATING OUR FUTURES. We show our commitment to these values by:

- Showing respect for myself, those around me, and the school environment by demonstrating an inclusive and tolerant mindset.
- Demonstrating responsibility for my actions and be accountable for their impact on my learning and the people around me.
- Seeking excellence for myself and those around me by embracing a resilient and growth mindset.

These values underpin the way we work together every day at Tannum Sands SHS and we believe that we must explicitly teach behaviours which reflect these values. Tannum Sands State High School staff takes an educative approach to discipline, that behaviours can be taught and that mistakes are opportunities for everyone to learn and grow. Through the explicit teaching, role modelling, correction and reinforcing of appropriate behaviours we aim to support every member of our school community to build our skills to be confident, self-disciplined and empathetic young people. Our school staff believe that communication and positive connections with other people are the most valuable skills our communities need now and in the future.

Our Student Code of Conduct provides an overview of the steps taken to explicitly teach the expected behaviours to our school community, how members will be supported to managing their behaviour, and outlines the way the school will respond when members struggle to meet the expected standards of behaviour.

P&C Statement of Support

Consultation and Review Statement

In recognition of the dynamic nature of the school environment, the Tannum Sands State High School Student Code of Conduct has been revised and updated following consultation with various stakeholders at various junctures. Our core values of Respect, Responsibility and Excellence are the cornerstones that underpin the systems, processes and practices that are the foundation of the Student Code of Conduct. The school's approach to pedagogy, behaviour expectations, acknowledgements and responses have all been reviewed and updated, reflecting these values and an approach that is more restorative and inclusive of the whole school community.

A communication strategy has been developed to support the implementation of the Tannum Sands State High School Student Code of Conduct, including promotion through the school website, newsletter and school social media platforms. Any families who require assistance to access a copy of the Tannum Sands State High School Student Code of Conduct, including translation to a suitable language, are encouraged to contact the principal. The Tannum Sands State High School Student Code of Conduct will undergo annual minor updates to reflect changing circumstances, data and staff. A fulsome review is conducted every four years in line with the scheduled review process for the School Planning, Reviewing and Reporting cycle.

Whole School Approach

Tannum Sands SHS is committed to being a restorative school, learning-focused community where everyone has the right to feel like they belong and are supported. Our focus is on building and maintaining respectful relationships, with everyone being responsible and accountable, and developing personal excellence and integrity by repairing/managing any harm openly and fairly. Being restorative underpins all aspects of our work and we proactively seek to develop strong, respectful relationships between all members of our learning community and work with them to support the work of creating our futures.

Our approach to teaching and learning recognises the complex relationship between learning, wellbeing and engagement acknowledging that "a supportive environment that combines a focus on wellbeing with a focus on learning is optimal" (Student Engagement and Wellbeing Framework). At Tannum, behaviour is not addressed in isolation and is supported through our Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) approach which incorporates the Mental Health Continuum, Continuum of Student Engagement and National Consistent Collection of Data (NCCD) Levels of Adjustment to ensure members of our school community are holistically supported to meet our behaviour expectations and maintain a positive and productive learning environment for all.

We are committed to ensuring that we seek to support positive behaviour throughout the school community by employing proactive and preventive processes and strategies, such as:

- Expected behaviours to promote the health, safety and wellbeing of all within the school community are introduced and taught routinely
- Behaviour expectations are highly visible in the school community
- Expected behaviour is acknowledged and reinforced frequently
- The use of high quality, research evidenced pedagogical practices as part of our Whole School Approach to Pedagogy, frequent Pedagogy Spotlight sessions for all staff, frequent professional development sessions for staff, and opportunities for staff to share their own successful practices through regularly scheduled Professional Learning Team (PLT) meetings allows for the frequent and continual development of successful practices to support safe, respectful and learning-focused environments
- Processes exist to help identify and support targeted intervention where and for whom the demonstration of expected behaviours is challenging; these include, but are not limited to:
  - identification of the need for differentiated teaching and learning and the provision of reasonable adjustments, recorded in a student's Personalised Learning Record;
  - frequent analysis of data sets that indicate a student's wellbeing and engagement,
  - including attendance, effort rating and behaviour rating;
  - sharing of data within and beyond the leadership team to support effective practice and intervention responses

Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS)

Tannum's Multi-tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) is used throughout the school to support student wellbeing, engagement, attendance and behaviour, recognising the complex relationship between these markers of possible success at school. Our Year Level Support Teams (YLST) use a range of data sets to monitor student engagement, including:

- Academic progress
- Attendance rate/pattern

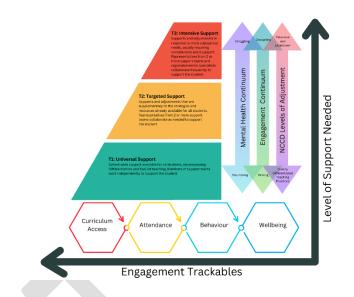

- Behaviour patterns

When evidence suggests a student requires additional support to engage positively with learning, YLST identify the appropriate level of support using indicators drawn from:

- Mental Health Continuum
- Continuum of Student Engagement
- NCCD Levels of Adjustment

Our tiered approach allows us to maintain a positive and productive learning environment for all, by:

 Promote a safe, supportive, inclusive, and disciplined learning environment through the explicit and targeted teaching and recognition of our behaviour norms

- Coordinate collaboration and communication between support teams
- Identify engagement, learning, and behaviour trends for individuals and groups of students using data
- Promote predictability and consistency of expectations and responses to behaviours throughout the school
- Recognise the importance of differentiated pedagogy and practice in establishing a safe, supportive, inclusive and disciplined learning environments
- Recognise the importance of building and maintaining respectful relationships, personal accountability, and personal excellence and integrity

Our MTSS is used to ensure members of our school community are holistically supported to meet our behaviour expectations and maintain a positive and productive learning environment for all.

Student Engagement, Behaviour and Wellbeing

At Tannum Sands SHS our goal is that every student is actively engaged in creating their future through participation in learning activities. It is recognised in educational research, the Australian Student Wellbeing Framework and the QLD Student Engagement and Wellbeing Framework that engagement is a complex state of being, is closely linked with an individual's sense of wellbeing, and is essential to facilitate student learning. Here at TSSHS we consider curriculum access, attendance, behaviour and wellbeing as key components student engagement and take a holistic approach to support students to maximise their learning and outcomes.

Every student is supported by a Year Level Support Team made up of a Learning Support expert, Head of Year, Guidance Officer and Deputy Principal. This team uses a Collaborative Problem Solving (CPS) approach informed by a range of data sources to develop individualised interventions and plans to support student engagement.

In addition to academic, attendance and behaviour data we use the QLD Engagement and Wellbeing (QEW) Survey, School Opinion Survey (SOS) and school-based pulse surveys to reflect student wellbeing and engagement across the school. To guide our reflection and planning to support student engagement we use Dr Amy Berry's Continuum of Student Engagement.

Responding to Behaviour

Differentiated and Explicit Teaching of Behaviour

Tannum Sands SHS believes that behaviour is something that must be modelled, explicitly taught, and practised. We acknowledge that we do not all learn in the same way or at the same speed and approach the mastery of expected behaviours with a differentiated approach involving proactive teaching and support of student behavioural expectations.

When behaviours which are not reflective of our school values and expectations happen, staff responses are differentiated to reflect student learning requirements, the degree of harm the behaviours have caused, and support needed to move forward. Our responses to behaviour can range from:

- Focused reteaching of expectations outside of curriculum time
- Actions to repair harm caused through restorative conversations or community service
- Disciplinary Absences to allow for reflection and development of targeted plans to address harm caused and support the student to master expected behaviours

Consideration of Individual Circumstances

Staff at Tannum Sands SHS take into account student's individual circumstances, such as their history, disability, mental health and wellbeing, religious and cultural considerations, home environment and care arrangements when teaching expectations, responding to behaviours or applying a disciplinary consequence.

In considering the individual circumstances of each student, we recognise that the way we teach, the support we provide and the way we respond to students will differ. This reflects the principle of equity, where every student is given the support they require to be successful. This also means that not everyone will be treated the same, because treating everyone the same is not equitable. For example, some students may require additional support to interpret or understand an expectation. Others may benefit from more opportunities to practice a required skill or behaviour. For a small number of students, the use of certain disciplinary consequences may be considered inappropriate or ineffective due to complex trauma or family circumstances. These are all matters that our staff and Principal consider with each individual student in both the instruction of the behaviour and the response to the behaviour.

Our staff are also obliged by law to respect and protect the privacy of individual students, so while we understand the interest of other students, staff and parent to know what consequence another student may have received, we will not disclose or discuss this information with anyone but that student's family. This applies even if the behavioural incident, such as bullying, involves your child. You can be assured that school staff take all matters, such as bullying, very seriously and will address them appropriately. We expect that parents and students will respect the privacy of other students and families.

If you have concerns about the behaviour of another student at the school, or the way our staff have responded to their behaviour, please make an appointment with the appropriate year level Deputy Principal to discuss the matter.

School Disciplinary Absences

A School Disciplinary Absence (SDA) is an enforced period of absence from attending a Queensland state school, applied by the Principal as a consequence to address poor student behaviour. There are four types of SDA:

- Short suspension (1 to 10 school days)
- Long suspension (11 to 20 school days)
- Charge-related suspension
- Exclusion (period of not more than one year or permanently).

At Tannum Sands State High School, the use of any SDA is considered a very serious decision. It is typically only used by the Principal when other options have been exhausted and/or the student's behaviour is so dangerous that continued attendance at the school is considered a risk to the safety or wellbeing of the school community.

Parents and students may appeal a long suspension, charge-related suspension or exclusion decision. A review will be conducted by the Director-General or their delegate, and a decision made within 40 schools days to confirm, amend/vary or set aside the original SDA decision by the Principal.

The appeal process is a thorough review of all documentation associated with the SDA decision and provides an opportunity for both the school and the family to present their case in the matter. Time is afforded for collection, dissemination and response to the materials by both the school and the family. It is important that the purpose of the appeal is understood so that expectations are clear, and appropriate supports are in place to ensure students can continue to access their education while completing their SDA.

Re-entry following suspension

Students who are suspended from Tannum Sands State High School are invited to attend a re-entry meeting before or on the day of their scheduled return to school. Some students may be offered the opportunity to complete a reflection sheet during their suspension, for discussion on their return. The main purpose of this meeting is to welcome the student, with their parent/s, back to the school. It is not a time to review the student's behaviour or the decision to suspend, the student has already received a consequence through their disciplinary absence from school. The aim of the re-entry meeting is for school staff to set the student up for future success and strengthen home-school communication.

It is recommended for the student and their parents to attend a re-entry meeting. It may be offered as a support for the student to assist in their successful re-engagement in school following suspension.

Arrangements

The invitation to attend the re-entry meeting will be communicated via telephone and in writing, usually via email. Re-entry meetings are short, taking less than 10 minutes, and kept small with only the Principal or their delegate attending with the student and their parent/s.

A record of the meeting is saved in OneSchool, under the Contact tab, including any notes or discussions occurring during the meeting.

Structure

The structure of the re-meeting should follow a set agenda, shared in advance with the student and their family. If additional items are raised for discussion, a separate arrangement should be made to meet with the parent/s at a later date and time. This meeting should be narrowly focused on making the student and their family feel welcome back into the school community.

Possible agenda:

- Welcome back to school
- Check in on student wellbeing
- Discuss any recent changes to school routine or staffing
- Offer information about supports available (e.g. guidance officer)
- Set a date for follow-up
- Thank student and parent/s for attending
- Walk with student to classroom

Reasonable adjustments

In planning the re-entry meeting, school staff will consider reasonable adjustments needed to support the attendance and engagement of the student. This includes selecting an appropriate and accessible meeting space, organising translation or interpretation services or supports (e.g. AUSLAN), provision of written and/or pictorial information and other relevant accommodations. The inclusion of support staff, such as guidance officers or Community Education Counsellors, may also offer important advice to ensure a successful outcome to the reentry meeting.

Tannum Sands State High School has tailored school discipline policies designed to ensure students, staff and visitors work cooperatively to create and maintain a supportive and safe learning environment. These policies have been developed in consultation with Education Queensland policy and legislative requirements.

Please ensure that you familiarise yourself with the responsibilities for students, staff and visitors outlined in the following policies:

- Respectful School Culture
  - Preventing and responding to bullying
  - Appropriate use of social media
  - In the Local Community
  - Use of mobile phones and other devices by students
  - Uniform and Presentation Standards
  - Senior Privileges
- Temporary removal of student property

Respectful School Culture

Preventing and Responding to Bullying and Harassment

The health, safety and wellbeing of our students and staff is of primary importance to our school community and must be reflected in the way we work together, learn and communicate; and in our culture, our thinking and our personal behaviours.

Our School Community's Commitment to health, safety and wellbeing is to be demonstrated by:

- RESPECTING the rights of every member of our school community (students, staff, parent/carers) to be welcomed, valued and safe in our school environment.
- Every member of our school community having Responsibility for their own personal health, safety and wellbeing and supporting others to do the same.
- All members of our school community (students, staff and parents/carers) demonstrating appropriate behaviours and respectful language, volume and tone
- All members taking positive action to maximise health, safety and wellbeing of our school community

Why do we have a bullying and harassment policy?

- Every member of our school community (students, staff, parents/carers) has the right to be welcomed and valued, to participate fully and enjoy being a part of our school community
- Everyone at Tannum Sands State High School (students, staff, parents/carers) has the right to perform their role within our school and feel safe and be free from fear and threat
- Bullying & Harassment is a community issue and our school community is committed to minimising the effects of bullying and harassment at all levels (students, parents, staff)

The agreed national definition for Australian schools describes bullying as:

- ongoing and deliberate misuse of power in relationships through repeated verbal, physical and/or social behaviour that intends to cause physical, social and/or psychological harm;
- involving an individual or a group misusing their power, or perceived power, over one or more persons who feel unable to stop it from happening;

- happening in person or online, via various digital platforms and devices and it can be obvious (overt) or hidden (covert). Bullying behaviour is repeated, or has the potential to be repeated, over time (for example, through sharing of digital records);
- having immediate, medium and long-term effects on those involved, including bystanders. Single incidents and conflict or fights between equals, whether in person or online, are not defined as bullying.

What are bullying and harassment behaviours within the school context?

Bullying behaviour is intimidation of a physical, verbal or psychological nature. The behaviour is the deliberate, conscious desire to hurt, threaten or frighten someone else. In many cases of Bullying behaviour, there are repeated anti-social, harassing or mean behaviours on the grounds of 'difference', for example:

- Gender
- Racial Background
- Religious Beliefs
- Cultural Beliefs

- Sexual orientation
- Ability and disability
- Socio-economic status
- Personal appearance

Some examples of different types of bullying, harassing and 'mean' behaviours that are not acceptable in our school community include:

1. Physical

• Pushing, fighting, spitting & Invasion of Personal Space

- Gang-like behaviour
- Picking on others and threats to 'get' people physically
- Damaging or interfering with other people's property
- 2. Verbal

• Name-calling, offensive language and 'put downs' Obscene and/or offensive notes, messages/images (including on e-devices) or graffiti about others; Picking on others and threats to 'get' people

• Spreading rumours

• Commenting on size and shape of someone's body

- Commenting on other people's personal lives or family member
- 3. Sexual

 Touching or brushing against someone in a sexual or unwanted physical manner

• Sexually orientated jokes, drawings, images or literature

• Unwanted invitations of a sexual nature

- 4. Gestural
- Threatening or offensive signs or actions
- Offensive notes, messages/images (including on e-devices) or graffiti about
- others; Picking on property.
- 5. Cyber
- abusive texts and emails
- hurtful messages, images or videos
- imitating others online
- excluding others online
- humiliating others online
- spreading nasty online gossip and chat
- creating fake accounts to trick someone or humiliate them
- 6. Gestural
- Threatening or offensive signs or actions

• Offensive notes, messages/images (including on e-devices) or graffiti about others; Picking on property

7. Exclusion

• Deliberately forming groups to exclude someone

- Deliberately not including someone in a shared game
- 8. Extortion

- Stand-over tactics e.g. to demand
- money, food or assignment work

Behaviours that do not constitute bullying include:

- mutual arguments and disagreements (where there is no power imbalance)
- not liking someone or a single act of social rejection
- one-off acts of meanness or spite
- isolated incidents of aggression, intimidation or violence.

However, these conflicts are still considered serious and need to be addressed and resolved. Consequences for bullying, harassing & mean behaviours are managed through School Disciplinary consequences.

What should students do if they are bullied, harassed or overwhelmed by mean behaviour?

- 1. If a student says or does something that results in another student feeling fearful or seriously uncomfortable, in the first instance, the targeted student will ideally tell the bullying student to stop in a firm but calm way.
- 2. One of the main reasons bullying and harassing behaviours continue to occur is because the students are too afraid to talk about it. If the bullying/harassing continues:
  - It is ok to talk about it. It is important to break the bullying code of secrecy and fear.
  - It is important to ask for help when needed. Talk to parents/carers.
  - Reporting on an incident is not dobbing. It is a very helpful and positive thing to do. Speak to a teacher/teacher aide/staff member e.g. HOYs, HODS, Chappy, Youth Support Worker, School Based Health Nurse, Guidance Officer.
  - Report in the Reporting boxes in Resource Centre/Office or Staffrooms

What should students do if they see students bullying, harassing or mean behaviours?

If present when bullying behaviour occurs:

- Talk to students who are getting a hard time, support them, include them and if safe, remove them from risk.
- If safe, challenge the students demonstrating bullying, harassing or mean behaviours or attempt to distract them.
- Report the incident or suspected incident and help break down the code of secrecy
- Provide reliable information to a staff member, if you questioned about a bullying, harassing or mean incident.

What should parents/carers do if they suspect their child is experiencing bullying, harassing or mean behaviours

- Look for warning signs e.g. not wanting to go to school or unexplained anxiety symptoms.
- Talk to their child about incidents and give support.
- Help their child identify any of his/her behaviours which may contribute to bullying/harassing and encourage their child not to retaliate.
- Advise their child to tell a staff member about the incident.
- Resist the temptation to confront the bullying personally & model respectful/curious language in front of your child regarding the alleged bully/harasser.
- Inform the school through the relevant HOY/DP.
- Encourage and support child to make a report trough the school reporting process.
- Parents and/or students can also report bullying/harassing of any child by calling our office or leaving a message.

What are our staff doing to minimise/avoid incidences of bullying, harassment, mean behaviour?

- Be a role model in words and actions at all times.
- Be observant of signs of distress or suspected incidents of bullying.
- Make efforts to remove opportunities for bullying by active patrolling during supervision duty, walking around classrooms and observing from back of room, arriving early to class and meeting students from the back of the line.
- Listen to, act on, and document any reports of Bullying or harassing behaviours in OneSchool (refer to Teacher action flowchart).
- Arrive at class on time or early, encourage students to do so as well.
- Use positive and respectful language in dealing with students.
- Set clear expectations for classroom practice.
- Report suspected incidents to DP for management.
- Take steps to help students who have been bullied or harassed, and refer for support where appropriate to Support Services staff.
- Empower and support

How do you report incidences of bullying, harassment and/or mean behaviour?

Anyone who experiences or witness incidences of bullying, harassment and/or mean behaviours is encouraged to report it so that it can be addressed and anyone impacted supported. Reports can be made to the relevant HOY, GO, DP or the Principal.

We acknowledge that at times people may find reporting incidences of bullying and harassment challenging. For this reason, we provide a digital reporting system. Students, staff and families can report concerns using the monitored email address: speakup@tannumsandsshs.eq.edu.au

Responding to Witnessed bullying/harassment

Appropriate use of social media

Tannum Sands State High School acknowledges the growing popularity of social media as a communication tool and supports its appropriate use. It also acknowledges the potential for damage to be caused (either directly or indirectly) to students, families and staff through the inappropriate use of social media. Students must understand they are responsible for the content they publish on social media platforms so it is important they understand what is expected of them while using social media. Inappropriate online behaviours can have a negative impact on student learning and the good order and management of Tannum Sands State High School – whether those behaviours occur during or outside school hours.

Tannum Sands State High School is committed to promoting the responsible and positive use of social media sites and apps.

Inappropriate online behaviour has the potential to embarrass and affect students, other people and the school for years to come. When managing inappropriate online behaviours or reputation management incidents, the primary concern must be the safety and wellbeing of the students and staff members involved.

At Tannum Sands SHS we promote online behaviour that is safe, appropriate and responsible to help prevent cybersafety incidences, students are taught how to:

- use technology appropriately and responsibly
- behave in ways to enhance their own safety

Students of Tannum Sands State High School are expected to engage in the appropriate use of social media. Specific examples of appropriate use of social media sites and apps include:

- Cyberbullying including:
  - abusive texts and emails
  - hurtful messages, images or videos
  - imitating others online
  - excluding others online
  - humiliating others online
- spreading nasty online gossip and chat
- creating fake accounts to trick someone or humiliate them
- Sexting and child exploitation material, child pornography and child abuse material
- Staff reputation management issues (including filming of staff and being in possession of footage of staff)
- Other forms of inappropriate online behaviour.
- Sharing personal information, such as name/nickname, address, phone number, school name and location (including images, photos or other identification factors) without consent.
- Provoking or engaging with another user who is displaying inappropriate or abusive behaviour. Rather than responding, address cyberbullying concerns using the online reporting tools, and seek support from an adult.

Disciplinary Consequences

Students

It is important for students, parents, and staff to know that state school Principals have the authority to take disciplinary action to address student behaviours that occur outside of school hours or school grounds. This includes cyberbullying. If inappropriate online behaviour directly and negatively impacts on the good order and management of Tannum Sands State High School, the school may impose disciplinary consequences for that behaviour regardless of whether the behaviour occurs during or outside of school hours. Disciplinary consequences could include suspension and/or exclusion. In serious cases of inappropriate online behaviour, the school may also make a report to the police for further investigation.

Tannum Sands State High School will not become involved in concerns of cyberbullying or inappropriate online behaviour where the incident in question does not directly negatively impact upon the good order and management of the school. For example, where cyberbullying occurs between a student of this school and a student of another school outside school hours. Such an incident will be a matter for parents and/or police to resolve.

Parents and other stakeholders

Parents or other stakeholders who engage in inappropriate online behaviour towards students, staff or other parents may be referred to the Office of the e-safety commissioner and/or the Queensland Police Service. State School staff will be referred for investigation to the Integrity and Employee Relations team in the department of Education. Any questions or concerns about the school process for managing or responding to cyberbullying should be directed to the Principal.

Laws relating to inappropriate online behaviour and cyberbullying

Inappropriate online behaviour may in certain circumstances constitute a criminal offence. Both the Criminal Code Act 1995 (Cth) and the Criminal Code Act 1899 (Qld) contain relevant provisions prohibiting types of online behaviour. The Commonwealth Criminal Code outlines a number of criminal offences concerning telecommunications services.

Potential relevant criminal offences are:

- using a carriage service to make a threat to kill or to cause serious harm to another person
- using a carriage service to menace, harass or cause offence to another person
- using a carriage service for child pornography material or child abuse material
- using a carriage service to promote methods for suicide or counsel another to commit suicide.

The Queensland Criminal Code contains several applicable sections for cyberbullying. Potential relevant criminal offences are:

- unlawful stalking
- computer hacking and misuse
- possession, distribution and making child exploitation material
- fraud obtaining or dealing with identification information
- criminal defamation

There are significant penalties for these offences and it is important to note that in Queensland the minimum age of criminal responsibility is 10 (Criminal Code Act, Section 29).

Information for Parents to support Cybersafety

To help keep your child safe when they are online, you can:

- put computers in open spaces within your home
- remind your child that content can be posted instantaneously, the downfall is that they can potentially post something without thinking about the ramifications.
- educate your child about appropriate online behaviour and the need for respectful communication with other internet users
- keep an eye on what your child is doing online (both in the home and on any mobile devices they may have access to e.g. phones, music devices and tablets)
- set clear rules about what sites and activities they are allowed to access

- install software to limit their use and monitor/restrict the sites they visit
- discuss a plan with your child about how to address any cybersafety issues that may arise (make sure they know you will be supportive if they mention anything and that they will not get in trouble)
- encourage them to find someone they feel safe talking to, such as yourself, a relative, a teacher or a trusted adult.

Access Online awareness: Information for parents and caregivers (PDF, 5 MB) which provides important information for parents about cybersafety and cyberbullying. It suggests what parents and caregivers could do if their child is the target of, or is responsible for, inappropriate online behaviour.

The Office of the eSafety Commissioner also provide a suite of resources, helping Australians to have safer, more positive experiences online. In particular, there is a parent page which provides advice for parents and carers, along with a blogposts page.

Through the Alannah & Madeline Foundation's Digitalk resource, parents can also access resources developed to help children and young people, and the people who care for them to reduce their risk of exposure to online harm and empower them to successfully and safely navigate the digital world.

Student Intervention and Support Services

Tannum Sands SHS recognises the need to provide intervention and support to all students involved in incidents of bullying, including cyberbullying.

Students who have been subject to or witness bullying have access to a range of internal support staff, identified in the Student Support Team. Students are, however, also encouraged to support any staff member with whom they feel comfortable sharing their concerns, regardless of their role in the school. All staff at Tannum Sands SHS are familiar with the response expectations to reports of bullying, and will act quickly to ensure student's concerns are addressed. Depending on the nature of the reported bullying incident, a formal plan of action may be developed and documented to support the implementation of the strategies to assist the student.

Students who engage in bullying behaviours towards others will be provided with support to assist them to use more socially acceptable and appropriate behaviours in their interactions. This may include participation in social development programs, referral to mental health services or involvement in restorative justice strategy. School disciplinary measures may also be used to reinforce the seriousness with which the community takes all incidents of bullying. These measures include Administration detentions, withdrawal from social opportunity or celebrations, or more serious consequences such as suspension or exclusion from school.

Ethical standards for teachers

If online behaviour raises allegations of suspected corrupt conduct by an employee report using iRefer which is the department's online reporting tool and/or email Ethical Standards Unit on ethicalstandards@qed.qld.gov.au. If the online behaviours relate to alleged student harm report the allegations using an SP3 on iRefer. For further information refer to the Allegations against Employees in the Area of Student Protection procedure or contact the department's Ethical Standards Unit for further assistance.

What if I encounter problem content?

Taking the following steps may help resolve the issue in a constructive way:

- refrain from responding
- take a screen capture or print a copy of the concerning online content

if you consider problem content to be explicit, pornographic or exploitative of minors, you should keep a record of the URL of the page containing that content but

NOT print or share it. The URL can be provided to the school principal, or police, as needed for escalation of serious concerns

- block the offending user
- report the content to the social media provider.

How do I report incidences of inappropriate social media use?

If it is believed that the inappropriate social media use may impact the good order and management of the school, you are encouraged to report it so that it can be addressed and anyone impacted supported. Reports can be made to the relevant HOY, GO, DP or the Principal.

Depending on the nature of the inappropriate social media use It may also be appropriate to report directly to police.

Cyberbullying response flowchart for school staff

How to manage online incidents that impact your school

Student protection

If at any point the principal forms a reasonable suspicion that a student has been harmed or is at risk of harm, they have a responsibility to respond in accordance with the Student protection procedure.

Explicit images

If the investigation involves naked or explicit images of children, staff should not save, copy, forward or otherwise deal with the content, as per the Temporary removal of student property by school staff procedure. This includes onto OneSchool records. Refer to the investigative process outlined in 'Responding to incidents involving naked or explicit images of children' from the Online Incident management guidelines.

Report

Refer to the Online incident management guidelines for more details, or if assistance is required, contact the Cybersafety and Reputation Management (CSRM)team on 3034 5035 or Cybersafety.ReputationManagement@qed.qld. gov.au.

Does the online behaviour/incident negatively impact the good order and management of the school?

If the incident was resolved at school-level, record details of the incident, as reported to the school and investigated through the incident management process, in the student's OneSchool behaviour record.

In the Local Community

Our school to make safe, respectful learners and partners with our school community to ensure that while at, and while representing our school, our students are fulfilling the school's Behaviour Expectations. Our school believes that all students have a responsibility to follow the Behaviour Expectations while representing the school. This includes while wearing the school uniform at school and in the general community. There may be instances where the school may make a proactive response to behaviour issues raised by members of the community. Examples include: safe road use, respectful interactions with members of the public. There may be instances where the school may make reactive responses and apply consequences to students who do not follow the schools Behaviour Expectations while representing the school.

Use of mobile phones and other devices by students *

Queensland state schools are committed to reducing the distraction of mobile devices to provide optimal learning environments for all students.

For the purpose of this procedure, mobile devices include mobile phones, wearables such as smartwatches, handheld devices and other emerging technologies which have the ability to connect to telecommunication networks or the internet.

During the Tannum Sands SHS learning day, mobile phones and associated electronic devices must be switched off and out of sight at all times. This applies while on school grounds or while attending school events between the beginning and end of the learning day unless an exemption has been granted by the principal. It is unacceptable for students of Tannum Sands State High School to use a mobile phone or other device from the beginning of the learning day at 8:50am until the end of day dismissal;

- in an unlawful manner;
- to download, distribute or publish offensive messages or pictures;
- and their own person, to use inappropriate, obscene, inflammatory, racist, discriminatory or derogatory language;

• and their own person, to use language and/or make threats of violence that may amount to bullying and/or harassment, or even stalking;

- and their own person to insult, harass or attack others or use obscene or abusive language;
- and their own person to commit plagiarism or violate copyright laws;

• or their own person to ignore teacher directions in the use of social media, online email and internet chat

• send spam email (junk mail);

• to knowingly download viruses or any other programs capable of breaching the department's network security;

• to use in-phone cameras anywhere a normal camera would be considered inappropriate, such as in change rooms or toilets, playground or classroom;

• to invade someone's privacy by recording personal conversations or daily activities, capturing people's images and/or the further distribution (e.g. forwarding, texting, uploading, Bluetooth use etc.) of such material;

- including Bluetooth functionality, to cheat during exams or assessments;
- to take into exams or use during class assessment.

If a mobile phone (or associated electronic device) is sighted or heard during the learning day:

• The student will be required to hand it in to the Administration Office, where it will be stored securel y until the end of the learning day.

 Failure to submit a phone to the Administration Office as directed can result in an external school sus pension. This serious consequence will be the result of the student's failure to comply with school r ules and behaviour which impacts on the good order and management of the school.

Students wishing to have their mobile phone or device stored safely at school can present them to the office, where the device will be labelled and kept securely by the school until collection.

Students with medical requirements who need to keep the device on them must provide medical documentation to support this and an exemption will be considered by the Principal or appropriate Deputy Principal.

The use of mobile phones and devices during school activities outside the school grounds (such as excursion, sport and camps) will be at the discretion of the relevant staff supervising the activity.

Parents/Guardians wishing to urgently contact their children, or vice versa, are required to do so through the school office on 49799777 and a message will be given to the student. It is understood that students may need a mobile phone before or after s chool for safety reasons, and for this purpose, they will be able to use their phone prior to 8:50am and once they are dismissed from class at the end of the learning day.

Students who choose to bring mobile phones or associated electronic devices to school, do so at their own risk and are responsible for ensuring that these items are kept secure and stored in their bag. The school and sch ool staff will not accept any responsibility for any loss or damage to technology devices nor will they investigat e loss or damage.

* This procedure does not apply to personal or school-owned devices, such as iPads, tablets or laptops, that are approved for educational use as part of the school's Bring Your Own Device (BYOx) program.

Uniform and Presentation Standards

We believe a uniform is important, because it:

- Encourages student pride and ownership in the school;
- Reduces competition amongst peers;
- Increases safety by allowing for easy identification of strangers and is; and
- Is cost effective for parents.

The wearing of uniform is also an important preparation for the workforce. It is this workplace standard that we will impress upon students. The image they present through the wearing of Tannum Sands State High School uniform, both at school and in public, may be an important factor when one day students present for job interviews.

Uniform

Senior Privileges Policy

This policy applies to Year 11 and 12 students. This policy recognises and rewards students with senior privileges for their commitment to the school's core values of respect, responsibility and excellence.

During Senior Enrolment Interviews, this policy was explained. It is published in the school's services guide, student organisers and on the school's website. Each term students will receive regular reminders about the policy on parades and in the newsletters.

Purpose of the policy

- To recognise students who consistently meet the school expectations for attendance, behaviour, work and participation.
- To reward students for their continued commitment to the school's values and expectations.
- Students must be on track to achieve their QCE, or engaged with support plans provided.
- To build a culture which encourages students to be self-managing in meeting their responsibilities maintaining and monitoring their own attendance, submitting assessment, bringing in notes and medical certificates, wearing the uniform and regulating their own behaviour.
- To ensure the school has a clear and transparent decision-making tool that is communicated to students regularly and which allows for an appeals process.
- To identify and support students requiring Special Provisions to enable them to fully engage at school.

Privileges

- Leadership positions
- Formal Committee
- School camps such as Carnarvon Mentoring, Ski trip, Uni trip and Japan trip
- Senior Jersey
- Invitation to Senior Formal

* NB - Student fees must be paid in full / payment plans must be up to date before any payments can be made for trips, jerseys or the formal.

Tracking student privileges:

- The Senior Schooling Deputy and Head of Year will be responsible for administering the system.
- Teachers and Heads of Department will be responsible for recording academic, behaviour, uniform and attendance infringements in OneSchool.
- Each term, students will be provided with a report card and attendance data to monitor their eligibility for senior privileges.
- Student's eligibility will be reviewed once a term by the Deputy Principal and Head of Year. Students and parents/carers will receive email communication where students are at risk of losing senior privileges.

Maintaining Senior Privileges:

- Students who consistently meet the school's expectations retain their privileges.
- Students will have the opportunity to enter into improvement contracts to regain their senior privileges and they can appeal decisions by the school resulting in the loss of their senior privileges.
- Be aware that if a student is unable to maintain their senior privileges in one year, this may be considered when hearing appeals for loss of privileges in the following year.

The temporary removal of any property in a student's possession may be necessary to promote the caring, safe and supportive learning environment of the school, to maintain and foster mutual respect between all state school staff and students.

In determining what constitutes a reasonable time to retain student property, the principal or state school staff will consider:

- the condition, nature or value of the property
- the circumstances in which the property was removed
- the safety of the student from whom the property was removed, other students or staff members
  - good management, administration and control of the school.

The Principal or state school staff determine when the temporarily removed student property can be returned, unless the property has been handed to the Queensland Police Service.

The following items are explicitly prohibited at Tannum Sands State High School and will be removed if found in a student's possession:

•illegal items or weapons (e.g. guns, knives*, throwing stars, brass knuckles, chains)

- imitation guns or weapons
- potentially dangerous items (e.g. blades, rope)
- drugs** (including tobacco)
- smoking paraphernalia (e.g. pipes, vapes)
- alcohol
- aerosol deodorants or cans (including spray paint)
- explosives (e.g. fireworks, flares, sparklers)
- flammable solids or liquids (e.g. fire starters, mothballs, lighters)
- poisons (e.g. weed killer, insecticides)
- inappropriate or offensive material (e.g. racist literature, pornography, extremist propaganda).

* No knives of any type are allowed at school, including flick knives, ballistic knives, sheath knives, push daggers, trench knives, butterfly knives, star knives, butter knives, fruit knives or craft knives, or any item that can be used as a weapon, for example a chisel. Knives needed for school activities will be provided by the school, and the use of them will be supervised by school staff. In circumstances where students are required to have their own knives or sharp tools for particular subjects or vocational courses, the school will provide information about the procedures for carrying and storing these items at school.

** The administration of medications to students by school staff is only considered when a prescribing health practitioner has determined that it is necessary or when there is no other alternative in relation to the treatment of a specific health need. Schools require medical authorisation to administer any medication to students (including over-the-counter medications such as paracetamol or alternative medicines).

Temporary removal of student property by school staff procedure

- 1. Classroom teachers and other school staff can temporarily remove student property if it poses a risk to the learning, safety or good order and management of the school.
- 2. Teachers request the item from students. If during class time, teachers secure the item in the classroom and either return the item at the end of the lesson and record in OneSchool (referring the incident to the relevant DP), or, if deemed dangerous, must take the item to Admin (record in OneSchool and refer to relevant DP). Items that are not to be returned to the carer or surrendered to QPS should be returned to the student the same school day.
- 3. Members of Administration can temporarily remove student property and can return the item to the student same day or can liaise with carers to collect the item. Prohibited items will be returned to carers, illegal items will be surrendered to a member of the QPS and parents will be notified.

Restrictive Practices

School staff at Tannum Sands State High School need to respond to student behaviour that presents a risk of physical harm to the student themselves or others. It is anticipated that most instances of risky behaviour can be de-escalated and resolved quickly. On some rarer occasions, a student's behaviour may continue to escalate and staff need to engage immediately with positive and proactive strategies aimed at supporting the student to manage their emotional arousal and behaviour.

In some very rare situations, where there is immediate risk of physical harm to the student or other people, and when all other alternative strategies have failed to reduce the risk, it may be necessary for staff to use restrictive practices.

The use of restrictive practices will always be as a last resort, when there is no other available option for reducing immediate risk to the student, staff or other people. Restrictive practices are not used for punishment or as a disciplinary measure.

The department's Restrictive practices procedure is written with consideration for the protection of everyone's human rights, health, safety and welfare. There are six fundamental principles:

- 1. Regard to the human rights of those students
- 2. Safeguards students, staff and others from harm
- 3. Ensures transparency and accountability
- 4. Places importance on communication and consultation with parents and carers
- 5. Maximises the opportunity for positive outcomes, and
- 6. Aims to reduce or eliminate the use of restrictive practices.

Very rarely restrictive practices will be planned and staff will employ, when necessary, pre-arranged strategies and methods (of physical restraint/ mechanical restraint/ clinical holding) which are based upon behaviour risk assessment or clinical health need and are recorded in advance. The use of planned strategies will only be where there is foreseeable immediate risk consistent with the Restrictive practices procedure.

Seclusion will not be used as a planned response and will only be used in serious circumstances for managing an unforeseeable situation in an emergency. It will be used for the shortest time possible and in a safe area that presents no additional foreseeable risk to the student. In such emergencies, a staff member will observe the student at all times and seclusion will cease as soon as possible.

Following the use of any restrictive practice, a focused review will help staff to understand how they responded to the risk in any incident that involved the use of a restrictive practice. Staff will consider whether there are other options for managing a similar situation in the future. This strategy works well for reducing the use of restrictive practices.

All incidents of restrictive practices will be recorded and reported in line with departmental procedures.

Critical Incidents

It is important that all school staff have a consistent understanding of how to respond in emergencies involving student behaviour that seriously endangers the student or others. This consistency ensures that appropriate actions are taken to ensure that both students and staff are kept safe.

A critical incident is defined as an occurrence that is sudden, urgent, and usually unexpected, or an occasion requiring immediate action (e.g. in the community, on the road). The aim in these situations is to bring the behaviour of the student under rapid and safe control. It is not a time to try and to punish or discipline the student; it is a crisis management period only.

Staff should follow the documented plan for any student involved in regular critical incidents, which should be saved and available for staff to review in OneSchool.

For unexpected critical incidents, staff should use basic defusing techniques:

- 1. Avoid escalating the problem behaviour: Avoid shouting, cornering the student, moving into the student's space, touching or grabbing the student, sudden responses, sarcasm, becoming defensive, communicating anger and frustration through body language.
- 2. Maintain calmness, respect and detachment: Model the behaviour you want students to adopt, stay calm and controlled, use a serious measured tone, choose your language carefully, avoid humiliating the student, be matter of fact and avoid responding emotionally.
- 3. Approach the student in a non-threatening manner: Move slowly and deliberately toward the problem situation, speak privately to the student/s where possible, speak calmly and respectfully, minimise body language, keep a reasonable distance, establish eye level position, be brief, stay with the agenda, acknowledge cooperation, withdraw if the situation escalates.
- 4. Follow through: If the student starts displaying the appropriate behaviour briefly acknowledge their choice and re-direct other students' attention towards their usual work/activity. If the student continues with the problem behaviour, then remind them of the expected school behaviour and identify consequences of continued unacceptable behaviour.
- 5. Debrief: At an appropriate time when there is low risk of re-escalation, help the student to identify the sequence of events that led to the unacceptable behaviour, pinpoint decision moments during the sequence of events, evaluate decisions made, and identify acceptable decision options for future situations.

Conclusion

Tannum Sands State High School staff are committed to ensuring every student is supported to feel safe, welcome and valued in our school. There may, however, be occasions where parents need to raise a concern or make a complaint about an issue you feel is adversely affecting their child's education.

All Queensland state schools are committed to ensuring that all complaints - whether they relate to a school staff member or a school's operations - are dealt with in a fair and equitable manner. As a parent or carer, you can express dissatisfaction with the service or action of the Department of Education or its staff, including decisions made or actions taken in a school and/or by the local regional office.

As a complainant, it is your responsibility to:

- give us a clear idea of the issue or concern and your desired solution
- provide all the relevant information when making the complaint
- understand that addressing a complaint can take time
- cooperate respectfully and understand that unreasonable, abusive, or disrespectful conduct will not be tolerated
- let us know if something changes, including if help is no longer needed.

The Department of Education may not proceed with your complaint if your conduct is unreasonable.

In most instances, staff members are told of complaints made about them and offered the right of reply. A complainant also has the right to have a support person throughout the process.

The following three-step approach assists parents and school staff in reaching an outcome that is in the best interests of the student:

1. Early resolution: discuss your complaint with the school

The best place to raise any concerns is at the point where the problem or issue arose. You can make an appointment at the school to discuss your complaint with your child's teacher or the principal. You are also welcome to lodge your complaint in writing or over the phone. You can also make a complaint through QGov.

Complaints may be lodged by telephone, writing or in electronic format. Email addresses can be accessed through the schools directory.

2. Internal review: contact the local Regional Office

If, after taking the early resolution step, you are dissatisfied with the outcome of your complaint or how the complaint was handled, you can ask the local regional office to conduct a review. You need to submit a Request for internal review form within 28 days of receiving the complaint outcome.

3. External review: contact a review authority if you are dissatisfied after the internal review, you may wish to contact a review authority, such as the Queensland Ombudsman, and request an independent, external review. More information about external review options is available at www.ombudsman.qld.gov.au.

Some matters need to be handled in a different way to school matters and will be referred to other areas in the department. These include:

- issues about harm, or risk of harm, to a student attending a state school, which must be managed in accordance with the Student protection procedure.
- complaints about corrupt conduct, public interest disclosures; or certain decisions made under legislation, which will be dealt with as outlined in the Excluded complaints factsheet.
